at capture

Reproduced below is a forensic copy of a publicly visible TikTok video preserved from the account @tilly.rowe at tiktok.com/@tilly.rowe/video/74210559xxxxxxxxx. It is presented as a captured key-frame of the clip with the displayed engagement counts, caption, sound credit and comments as they appeared at the point of capture. The original video file has been retained separately. The on-screen overlay "MIDNIGHT - you know who you are" and the background visible in the frame are described, not imaged - no photograph of any person is reproduced. No credentials were used and no private content was accessed.

Forensic reproduction - captured key-frame and metadata of a public video, not a live screenshot.
