VERDICT WORKSHEET

Detective's case-solving worksheet - Murder of Tilly Rowe

How to use this sheet. You are the investigating detective. Work through the evidence pack and weigh each suspect against the three classic tests - Means (could they have done it?), Motive (why would they?) and Opportunity (were they there, at the time?). In each box write your reasoning and, crucially, the exhibit references from your pack that back it up (e.g. OT/9, JT/1). When you are satisfied, record your final verdict at the foot of the sheet. There is no points deduction for a wrong tick - only the evidence matters.

SUSPECT ASSESSMENT - MEANS, MOTIVE & OPPORTUNITY

Complete one block for every suspect in the case. Be specific: a name, a time, an exhibit reference is worth more than a hunch.

Before you commit: have you ruled in only the suspect the evidence supports, and ruled out the others with reasons? A strong verdict survives the obvious objection. Re-read any alibi that the pack contradicts.

MY VERDICT

WHO KILLED TILLY ROWE, AND HOW DO YOU KNOW?

In your own words: name the person responsible, set out what they did, and explain how the evidence proves it beyond reasonable doubt.
